Dairymen's League Reports Are Made

Directors Also Elected at Big Meeting at Utica, Chester Young for This District—Finances in Fine Shape.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Utica, N. Y., June 15.—The armory in this city was crowded today with farmer-business men who listened with keen interest to officers of the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association, Inc., as they gave a report of their stewardship during the first eleven months' operation of the plan for the collective marketing of milk. What they learned of the rapid and remarkable development of this great farmers' marketing organization was as amazing to the so-called "poor" delegates as it has been to men in financial and commercial circles who have been keenly watching the growth of this progressive farm movement.

The big story of accomplishments of the association's fiscal year beginning April 1, 1921, and ending March 31, 1922, as set forth in the annual reports, is best told by these outstanding facts:

Sales of milk and milk products amounted approximately to $62,000,000.

Pooled milk handled in plants operated by dealers and in plants owned by the association aggregated $2,553,476.805.

The average price received for all Grade B milk at the 201-210 mile freight zone, testing 3 per cent butterfat was $2.01 per 100 pounds.

Pooled producers received approximately $5,800,000 more than they would have received had the price been the same as the average price received during the same period in all other organized territories.

The membership increased from 50,812 on May 1, 1921, when the pooling plan went into effect, to 65,050 on April 1, 1922. The membership had increased to 71,296 on June 1 last.

All this was accomplished despite the fact that the past year was one of the worst ever experienced in the dairy industry, conditions being abnormal because of the general price depression and economic disturbances following the world war.

Delegates were present from 944 localities in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Vermont.

Decorations for the recent G. A. R. convention in the armory, a beautiful display of flags and bunting were left in position for the farmers' meeting, making a very patriotic background for an intensely patriotic audience.

The meeting was called to order by George W. Slocum, of Milton, Pa. president, at 10 o'clock. The morning session was devoted to informal business.

The formal session took place in the afternoon during which the officers read their annual reports and the official report of the tellers as to the election of 24 directors on May 27 was received.

President Slocum Reports.

In his annual report President Slocum said in part:

"Many sacrifices have been made and are still being made because you men had a vision and that vision carried with it the finest example of loyalty ever displayed. You have been struggling for years to establish a definite constructive program based on business methods. It has been a fight against seemingly overwhelming odds. Little did you think, back in 1916, it would take so long, and it is going to take a little while longer. We have just passed over the top and I know you men have just that true Americanism surging in your veins to see it through. Remember that we are building not alone for ourselves, but for posterity. Therefore, let us show to all classes of farmers that the problem can be solved and that we are going to solve it."

Mr. Slocum pointed out that the average price of milk prior to 1916 before the old Dairymen's League became effective as a marketing agency was $1.35 per 100 pounds. The average price for June milk for the same period, he said, was 87 cents. It was not many years ago, he added, that some farmers received only 1 cent a quart during the flush period.

Mr. Slocum explained that although the Dairymen's League worked wonders for the benefit of the farmers, its sphere of usefulness was limited, largely because of its one price system. No matter how good the market for milk was in various classes, he said, the price was always borne down by the poor market for all the other classes.

He referred to the demoralized market conditions following the war when exports of milk products stopped and manufacturers closed, condenser, compelling thousands of farmers to keep their milk at home, and said:

"It was this deplorable situation which if continued for any length of time, would have wrecked both the market for fluid milk and the league itself which made the officers and members of the Dairymen's League realize that something had to be done in the way of a better plan of organization to save the whole situation from ruin."

"I believe that the Co-operative Association is working upon principles which are fundamentally sound and, which, if allowed out in the main, will lead us to success."

"There has been considerable criticism on the part of our enemies about our manufactured products coming into competition with the products of dealers who buy their raw milk of this association. This association would rather have the dealers operate all of the plants and we have made it possible for them to do so. But when they fail, then the association must step in for its members and having been obliged to operate plants, it naturally follows that we have the right to put those products on the market to the best advantage of our members."

Manning Tells of Great Growth.

Albert Manning of Otisville, N. Y., who is also State Master of the New York Grange, gave a comprehensive report as secretary of the association. According to the secretary, there were 50,812 pooling contracts on May 1, 1921, and 68,318 on April 1, 1922, the end of the fiscal year, an increase of 17,470. During the cancellation period 3,263 contracts were withdrawn, leaving 65,050, which were effective for another year.

During the first two months of the new fiscal year 6,246 contracts were received and 71,296 were effective on June 1 last.

Mr. Manning said there are 944 localities in the association, distributed as follows: New York, 718; Pennsylvania, 187; New Jersey, 42 and New England, 17.

"Notwithstanding the malicious misrepresentation about the league, its directors, its officers, its policies and its results," Mr. Manning said, "it has made this phenomenal increase of membership, transcending so far as we can learn anything of its kind in the world."

"The loyalty of its membership has never been surpassed. They have tasted the fruits of co-operation and the contrast of the bitterness of former years' experience when unorganized places beyond the horizon of doubt the possibilities of our ever returning to the policy of by gone days when the dealer fixed the price we should receive."

Touching on general subjects of interest to agriculture, Mr. Manning said:

"Considering a revision of the tariff, whether we believe in a protective tariff or not, farm organizations in general feel that if a protective tariff is to be the policy of our government, we should insist that agriculture should not be discriminated against. The tendency of a protective tariff is to increase the price of articles protected, and it would be unfair to place a tariff on articles which the farmer does not produce and must buy, and not place a correspondingly high tariff on the products the farmer produces and desires to sell."

Farmers Do Big Business.

The report of W. W. Hoyer of New Hartford, N. Y., general manager of the Cooperative Association, dealt in detail with the enormous business the association did during the fiscal year.

The total amount of milk delivered to plants operated by dealers from pooled members amounted to 2,174,309,353 pounds, he said. The total handled in plants operated by the association was 391,167,452 pounds, making a total of 2,565,476,805 pounds of pooled milk.

The total of pooled milk and non-pooled milk handled by dealers reporting and milk handled in the association's plants amounted to 4,019,229,879 pounds.

Mr. Hoyer said that the average price received for all Grade B milk in the 201-210 mile freight zone, testing 3 per cent butterfat, amounted approximately to $2.01 per 100 pounds.

The total administrative expense for the fiscal year amounted to $629 per 100 pounds.

Other deductions were per 100 pounds: $0.02, distributed to locals; $0.1, advertising; $0.05 for insurance; $0.04 for cover losses created by uncollected accounts and other losses; $0.04, depreciation.

The total of these items amounts to $0.25 per 100 pounds.

Deductions for certificates of indebtedness and credited to that account amounted to $1.68 per 100 pounds. These certificates are gilt-edged securities, bear 6 per cent and mature in five years.

The great growth of the association is strikingly shown by Mr. Hoyer's statement that on April 1, 1921, the association operated 22 farmer owned plants and rented 7. In March, 1922, it owned 41 plants and rented 46. Owing to the refusal of certain dealers to buy milk from the association, it was obliged to take on more plants to handle the farmers' milk and now operates 123.

During the eleven months the association exported its manufactured products to all parts of the world. The export sales aggregated $1,327,500.

Finances in Fine Shape.

The report of Bruce M. Kilpatrick, treasurer, was accompanied by an affidavit of Haskins & Sells, public accountants, 30 Broad street, New York, saying: "As the result of our audit to date, we are of the opinion that the financial affairs of the League

CONFERENCE AT THE HAGUE BEGUN

Big Diplomats of Russia, Mainly Concerned, and Other Powers Not Present—Russian Testimony Begins June 26.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
The Hague, June 15.—The international conference, to consider means for the reconstruction of Russia and by which Great Britain hopes to bring about a long-term truce to secure the peace of Europe, opened today.

The threads of the Genoa conference will be picked up at once after a mixed commission is appointed to study the Russian problem in detail. Economic experts representing more than a dozen nations are gathered here. The United States is not officially represented. Neither is Germany.

The sessions are being held in the Peace Palace, endowed by Andrew Carnegie in a futile effort to establish world peace many years ago.

The next ten days will be given over to the appointment of the mixed commission and the outlining of the agenda.

The taking of testimony from the commission of Russian experts will not begin until June 26. If present plans are followed, the examination of the Russians will continue for about three months after which the mixed commission will make a report, embodying recommendations as to the best means of rehabilitating Russia economically.

The star diplomats of Russia were absent when the curtain was rung up for this latest international conference. Premier Lloyd-George, who was responsible for the gathering, decided not to attend. British interests are in the keeping of a commission of experts headed by Sir Philip Graeme.

Holland prepared a warm welcome for the various representatives. Dr. Van Karnebeek, Dutch minister of foreign affairs, delivered the address of welcome. The minister's optimistic words were in contrast with the prevailing spirit of pessimism.

The Russians are standing pat upon their demands laid down at the Genoa conference—demands which have aroused the intense ire of France and Belgium. The British delegates are ready for conciliation, but without the master hand of Lloyd-George, they are sadly handicapped.

France will not participate as a sponsor of the conference, but she agreed to send a commission of experts to watch French interests. Up to a late hour they had not arrived.

It is understood that sub-committees will be appointed immediately to discuss such issues as are of most vital concern to the two recalcitrants—France and Belgium. These are recognition of the Russian national debt and private property rights.

The instability of the conference has been increased by news from Russia that Nicolai Lenin is in a precarious condition.

According to preliminary plans which were subject to change without notice, the mixed commission would consist of 11 members. Five of these would represent England, France, Belgium, Italy and Japan and the other six would represent neutrals.

Germany was barred from the conference by her action at Genoa in entering into a treaty with Russia, but her interests are being watched and German business men close to Hugh Stinson are present.

Sir Philip Graeme in explaining the meeting to International News Service said:

"It is likely that the meeting will have very little interest for the outside world, for it will consist mostly of dry-as-dust technical details relating to economic matters. We hope to be able to present definite proposals to the Russians and we hope that the Russians will prove more tractable than they were at Genoa."

LONDON COMMENT ON SHIP LIQUOR CONTROVERSY

By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, June 15.—The question of the sale of liquor on ships flying the United States flag, came in for international attention today. Also, it aroused the psychological interpretation "Why do travelers want to drink?"

Commenting upon the Volstead speech made in the American house of representatives by Congressman Gallivan of Massachusetts, on Tuesday, a shipping official said:

"Next! all men and some women demand to see the wine card before they will book passage for New York on American shipping, board liners. They want to be sure that they are going to get what they want."

Congressman Gallivan made public a wine list used on American shipping board liners, showing that passengers can get alcoholic satisfaction of any kind.

Aldorf Not Arrested.

Through an error the name of George D. Aldorf of Gardiner was included in the list of speeders arrested last Sunday by the local police. Mr. Aldorf was not arrested. Instead he reported to the police department that another car had struck his own.

FORMAL COAL STRIKE JULY 1

Maintenance Men Then Quit and Mines May Be Flooded—Negotiations For Settlement at a Standstill.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, June 15.—The breaking off of negotiations after a warm hour-hour session between the representatives of the anthracite coal operators and the officials of the United Mine Workers, seems to leave no alternative to the union men, but to turn the present suspension of work into a formal strike, in the opinion of the union leaders.

Though unable to reach grounds for a mutual understanding the situation is not considered wholly hopeless because operators and miners are tacitly agreed for further conferences, should either side intimate a willingness to concede points of dispute.

The turning of the present suspension of work into a formal strike, would mean the calling out of the maintenance men who are now safeguarding the coal mines against flooding, accumulation of gases, etc.

In the great 1902 anthracite strike, the calling out of the maintenance men brought on such great damage to the mines that some were totally useless and others were unable to resume work for many months.

The operators are already making plans to have the mines guarded by non-union labor from flooding and gas.

"I have no doubt but that a strike call will be issued, effective July 1," said Chris J. Golden, president of District No. 9. "There is no question but that we will be empowered by the miners to call the strike. There will be a meeting of the district presidents in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., on June 26, when the strike ballots will be canvassed."

Golden predicted an acute shortage of house coal, if there is a formal strike. He said that it was likely that a water famine would result when water companies run short of fuel.

RIOT ON BOAT OVER WHISKEY FATAL TO ONE

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, June 15.—Police of Washington and Alexandria, Va., were conducting a rigid investigation today, of a riot last night on the river steamer Charles McAlester, which resulted in the death of one man and the serious injury of a number of others. The boat was loaded with more than a thousand excursionists, mostly high school students and railway workers, when a free-for-all fight started, presumably over payment for some whiskey. Four hundred persons are said to have taken part in the fight.

Louis B. McCormick, 20, was stabbed, dying later in an Alexandria hospital. Other injured men were rushed to hospitals here. A number of arrests were made.

Men, Strawberries, Dancing.

What men? The men of St. John's Men's Club who are asking their friends to keep their date with them for Saturday evening, when they, the men, give the strawberry and ice cream festival they have been talking about on the grounds between the parish house and the church on Wall street. Where does the dancing come in? The men have secured a good orchestra, and the only thing that will "come in" will be the dancing for which the dancers will have to "come in" to the parish house.

Troopers Seize Still.

State troopers Wednesday made a sensational raid on the home of Dominick Latta, a Russian, at Athens, Greene county, and seized a complete still and a dozen or more jugs of what was said to be whiskey.

Queen Esther Lawn Party.

The Queen Esther Circle of the St. James Church will hold a lawn party on the parsonage lawn on Saturday afternoon and evening. Strawberries, ice cream, cake and candies will be for sale.

RUSSIA LOSES HOPE FOR LOANS

Is Now Dickering With Big Oil Companies to Sell Concessions—Can Recover Herself, Says Radek.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Moscow, June 15.—Russia has little hope of getting a big loan from the powers at the Hague, but she has already entered into negotiations with the Standard Oil Company and Anglo-Dutch Oil interests, for concessions through which she hopes to benefit financially. It was learned today from officials of the Soviet.

Karl Radek, former Russian envoy to Germany, in discussing the outlook said:

"Russia can recover through her own strength and without outside help. It is this idea that animates us as the conference starts at the Hague. The idea that we can secure loans from the Allied governments, is all nonsense. Neither the European governments nor the United States can give Russia the credits she needs. The only possible way we can get what we want is from private sources."

The private capitalists will not grant credits to Russia until they have ceased to fear the lack of security in our country. It will require time to re-establish ourselves as a first class debtor nation."

Radek was asked about the various reports concerning oil concessions, and he answered:

"The Soviet government is negotiating with the Standard Oil Company and also with Anglo-Dutch interests (the Shell group). We desire if possible, to offer both groups the same concessions, without any favoritism."

"America's policy towards Russia is one of hesitation. We cannot hope for any aid from America although we have encouraged the United States to change her policy towards the Near East."

RUSSIA PROMOTES BALTIC PARLEY

Poland, Finland, Estonia and Latvia Invited To Make Armament Reduction Agreement.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Moscow, June 15.—Russia today invited all the Baltic states to a disarmament conference. The invitation was issued by M. Litvinoff, who is acting as commissar for foreign affairs in the absence of George Tchitcherine. The states invited are Poland, Finland, Estonia and Latvia.

"The Genoa conference failed to satisfy the hopes of the masses because France refused to consider the burden of armaments that Europe is now carrying," said Litvinoff, in a statement to International News Service. He added:

"The action of France, however, does not prevent us and our neighboring states from entering into an agreement for a proportionate reduction of land and sea armaments."

During the Genoa conference, M. Tchitcherine proposed reduction of armaments but the suggestion was rejected by France.

OBREGON IGNORANT OF RECOGNITION PROGRESS

Mexico City, June 15.—The financial conference in New York of Adolfo de la Huerta, and a committee of American bankers has not brought Mexico nearer to recognition by the United States government so far as President Alvaro Obregon knows.

In an exclusive statement to International News Service today, the president said:

"I have not yet received any communication from the United States to the effect that the Washington administration has agreed to recognize the Mexican national government."

RUSSIA TO DISCUSS SIBERIA WITH JAPAN

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Moscow, June 15.—Russia will enter into diplomatic negotiations with Japan regarding Japanese occupation of Siberia at once, it was announced today. The conference will be held at Dalren, Manchuria, where the representatives of the Far Eastern Republics have been in consultation with the Japanese. Soviet Russia will be represented by Dr. Jaffe, former Bolshevik envoy in Germany.

Trolley Road Tax Case.

There was a hearing before Judge Hirschberg, official referee, at Newburgh Wednesday in the matter of the certiorari proceedings brought by the New Paltz, Highland and Poughkeepsie Traction Company against the State Tax Commission, town of Lloyd, and others. Brinnier & Canfield, represented the Traction Company and John W. Eckert, A. Wright Lent, John N. Vanderlyn and Deputy Attorney General J. B. Turner, represented the defendants. The matter was adjourned until July 15.

Saugerties Burglars Took $50 And Left Insulting Notes

"Pretty Soft," Was The Message They Left in The Safe, and Quality of Liquor Found Was Also Subject of Criticism—Left $100 Belonging to Athletic Association.

Some time during Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning the Saugerties High School building was entered by thieves, who stole about $50 from the office safe. The safe was opened by the combination and after taking the money they left a note, "Pretty Soft" and placed it so it would be immediately noticed upon opening the safe.

A box containing approximately $100 in silver belonging to the Athletic Association was untouched. The desk of Superintendent James was also ransacked and valuable papers were strewn around the room.

A small bottle of liquor used for medicinal purposes was emptied of its contents and on the back of a white envelope was printed, "Your Rum is too Damn Cheap, Yours As Ever, Ha! Ha!

The box containing the regents examination papers was evidently not touched as the papers were found intact.

The thieves also visited a number of the grade rooms as cigarette butts were found scattered in the rooms.

The burglary was first discovered by the janitor, Theodore Beckhoff, who found the main door of the building unlocked and notified Captain Richter, who is now working on the case.

The robbery appears to be a local job, and someone familiar with the premises, as the Athletic Association money had to be moved to get the other money, which was stolen, confirms this theory. Suspicion is directed to certain parties and subpoenas have been issued to them.

How an entrance to the building was effected is still a mystery.

SOLDIERS ENJOY THEMSELVES HERE

Boys of 26th Infantry, Hiking From Camp Dix to Plattsburg, Pleased With Hospitality Extended Them While Here on Wednesday—Camping Today at Malden.

The 26th Infantry broke camp at the Athletic Field at 5:45 o'clock this morning and hiked northward. This afternoon they are in camp at Malden, just across the road from Poulitney Bigelow's property, after covering less than 14 miles. It was expected to make a longer hike today but it had been impossible to secure camp grounds.

The present site at Malden was suggested through the assistance of Poulitney Bigelow, when he was visited Wednesday afternoon by Lieutenant Colonel Reed, in charge of the regiment, and Captain Irwin of his staff. The regiment had hoped to reach Ravens by Friday night, but owing to the long hike from Malden, probably will not be able to do so.

The regiment was loud in its praise of Kingston hospitality and enjoyed every minute spent here. The courtesies of the local Y. M. C. A. and the Knights of Columbus building were extended to the soldiers who took advantage of the swimming pool and baths at the Y and the shower baths at the Y and C. Home. Both organizations turned over their entire facilities to the boys without charge.

The Athletic Field was also turned over to the regiment for camping purposes free of charge, and the site was in sharp contrast to some of the sites in other places. The Athletic Field made an ideal camping ground and delighted both the officers and the men.

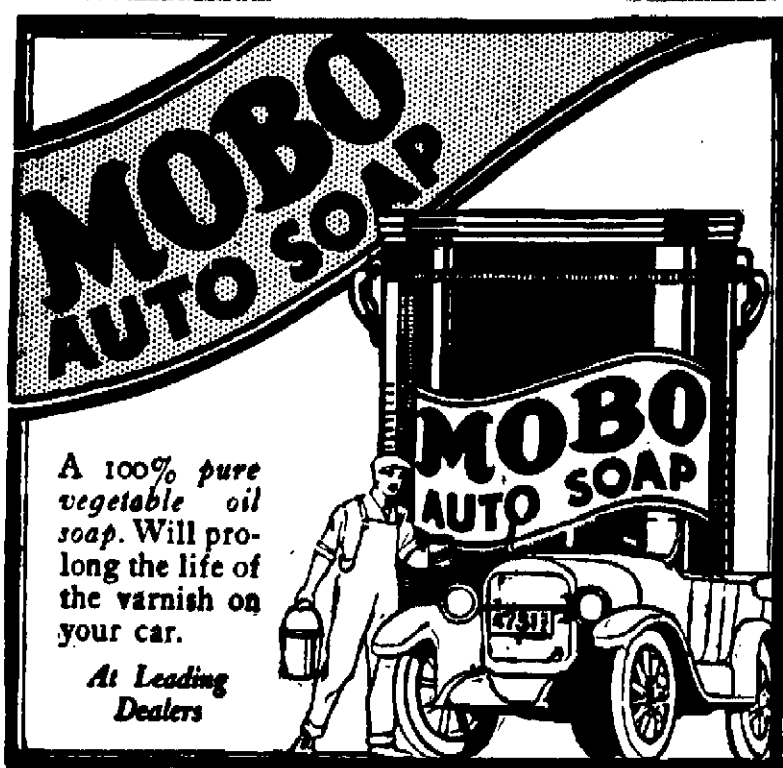

In the afternoon many of the boys were the guests of the Kingston Fair Grounds when the locals defeated the Philadelphia Colored Giants. The band of the regiment was also present at the Fair Grounds and rendered a number of musical selections.

Wednesday evening the president of the Kingston Rotary Club and Arthur Carr of the club were the guests of Colonel Reed at the officers' mess and the colonel and members of his staff expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the hospitality extended. They were also favorably impressed with the beauty of the city, the good streets, and the pleasant homes. "The finest town we've been in yet," said one of the officers.

During the afternoon the camp was visited by hundreds. There were a number of ex-service men among the visitors who enjoyed the visit all the more because they could walk about without having to salute whenever they met an officer.

While the regiment is not recruited to full strength there are still many of the members who saw active service overseas in the World War when the regiment was one of the first units of the United States Army to land on French soil. There are still a number of men with the regiment who were with it in France. Among the non-coms is a man who has been in continuous service for the past twenty-eight years.

The visitors were somewhat surprised when they visited the camp to find a number of "dogs of war" with the regiment. There are nearly a dozen Airedales with the soldiers, and all are of good blood, several being Beginnings of Baseball.

Abner Doubleday, who later went to West Point and ultimately became a major general in the United States army, is given the credit for originating the game, in 1839. He and some other young men began to play a game they afterward called baseball. One of these, named Cartwright, had the idea of a diamond to improve the game. "Two Old Cat" and "Three Old Cat" were still early forms of ball and were adapted probably from the English game of rounders.

Look Ahead.

It is well enough to stop and rest now and then. But while we rest, our eyes ought to be on the hilltop that is to be scaled rather than on the valley out of which we have come. Think always in terms of tomorrow, not of yesterday. Never mind what you did yesterday. It is what you are going to do tomorrow that you want to think of. And be sure while you are thinking of it that you devote today to the business of arriving.—John Blake in Chicago Daily News.

PRESIDENT AND DEAN TO SPEAK AT ITHACA

Livingston Farrand and A. R. Mann to Address Farmers' Field Days.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Ithaca, N. Y., June 15.—Livingston Farrand, formerly at the head of the American Red Cross and now president of Cornell University, and Dean A. R. Mann of the state college of agriculture, will be the speakers at Farmers' Field Days here on Thursday and Friday, June 22 and 23, according to an announcement made today.

This year is the first time that President Farrand has participated in the annual field days of the college of agriculture, having been inaugurated as president of the university only last fall. From having been connected with public health work in various capacities for the past ten years, both in this country and in Europe during the war, Dr. Farrand has a keen interest in community work of all sorts, and has already become liked by New York folks.

SAMSONVILLE.

Samsonville, June 15.—Charles E. Smith celebrated his 78th birthday on Sunday. Mr. Smith has always lived in this vicinity and for many years was the blacksmith of the village. Back when Dr. Grant and A. J. Anderson were in business in Samsonville Mr. Smith was the leading blacksmith. Since that time he bought a farm, where he now resides. Mr. Smith is one of our most respected citizens, a good and kind neighbor, and has many friends who wish him many more pleasant birthdays. Although his health is not the best he is cheerful and does light work on the farm. Among those present on Sunday were his son, Montana and daughter, Lela, who are at home; H. G. Smith of Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and son and daughter of Hurley, William Alexander and wife, daughter and lady friend of Liberty, Sullivan county; Mrs. Anna Smith of Kingston; his brother, Egbert Smith of Olive Bridge; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelleher and Mr. and Mrs. Elias Miller. A very fine chicken dinner was served by Miss Lela, also plenty of other refreshments, making the occasion very pleasant for all. Mr. Smith received a number of presents and we hope to meet with him on the same occasion many times more.

Put Pony's Comfort First.

One Sunday afternoon when I was ten years old my beau came over to take me for a ride in his pony cart. I took my new red parasol along, as it was a very hot day. On the way home my beau thought it was too hot for his pony so he took my parasol and climbed on the pony's back and held it over the pony's head. I was left sitting alone in the cart, with not even a hat on my head. This ended my first love affair.—Chicago Journal.

ALL RIGHT TO BE SHOT SAY LATEST VENDETTA VICTIM

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, June 15.—"Oh, that was all right," exclaimed Clemente Fagoli, as he lay in Adams street, Brooklyn, today with six bullets in his body, fired by his "friend" Natali Sica. He explained further: "It was Natali who did the shooting. He lives in Mulberry street over by the river. Don't be too hard on him. You see my dad shot his father, so it was only right that he should shoot me. I would like to speak to my son before I die but that is all right too."
Clemente was taken to the hospital in dying condition. He was a stevedore and was on his way home whistling a tune when he was shot down.

THE EVER POPULAR BOX COAT

The box coat of the season is distinguished by the flaring or bell sleeves. This attractive suit is made of mid-night blue twill and is trimmed with diamonds of mauve ribbon attached with steel heads. A hat of imported milan completes the costume.

THE SMART SCARF AND TIE

Outfit That Goes Well With Sport Wear Can Be Made in Next To No Time.

A smart, colored scarf never comes amiss, and one made of a fifty to sixty-inch wide wool fabric can be made in next to no time, and goes well with sport wear. Choose some loosely woven fabric of a bright tint, only half a yard will be needed if of the width mentioned. Cut the scarf about fifteen inches wide or use the full eighteen inches. Select some wool of the same color or some contrasting tint, and all around the edge of the scarf do a loose buttonhole with it, placing the stitches close enough together to give firmness to the edge. Then at each end of the scarf make a fringe of the wool, knotting it through the material. Use a large-eyed wool needle and draw four threads of wool at a time through the material. Eight threads or the double of four will be sufficient for one fringing of the wool. Then cut off these threads to a length of about four inches. And that is all there is to the scarf.

A time-saver to match is smart and not hard to make just "out of one's head" without a pattern. Use for trimming at one side two tassels of the wool used on the scarf. Gray material with a bright wool trimming is a good combination, or gray wool to trim a bright material.

NEW WAISTCOATS OF RATINE

Fabric is in Keeping With Character of Tweed and Homespun—Should Be in Demand.

The frayed or fringed skirt has led even hockweaver into the temptation of traveling its edges. When ratine is the material, and rust white the color combination, the effect is very smart and the attractiveness of the sport or tailored suit is greatly enhanced by the addition.

Ratine waistcoats are quite in keeping with the character of tweed and homespun and should be in considerable demand as long as these suits are worn. Pongee is another practical material for vest styles, says Dry Goods Economist. Its neutral color assures adaptability and its laundering quality is a strong selling point. With the well-favored dark blue suit, the pongee accessory is in very good taste and good style.

HINTS FOR THE DRESSMAKER

How to Trim the Black Saten Morning Frock—Embroidery May Be Effectively Used.

To trim the new and useful black saten morning frock there are several up-to-date ways. One is to use cheerful cretonne to form bands to outline the neck and short sleeves and pockets. Another plan is to use cretonne to form a bib design down the front of the frock. This brightens it up considerably and makes it becoming.

A third plan is gay-colored crepe for collars and cuffs and pipings. One may also embroider the black saten with colored wools effectively. Basket designs worked in green wool should have blue or yellow flowers or crimson cherries.

Then there is the popular applique work that can utilize scraps of checked gingham for simple fruit or flower designs.

Shoes Are Featured.

Frocks of checked silk gingham are combined with silk or organdie-trimmed sashes. Many sashes are being worn, some of brocade ribbon, other of plain ribbon or silk, finished with tassels.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, June 15.—Children's Day services at 10 a. m., with a suitable sermon by the pastor. Preaching at 2:30 and Woodstock, on "Scrap Heaps." The morning children's service will consist also of special music and participated in by the children.

M. Dupuy of Newburgh called on friends in this place on Sunday, June 4.

L. Goldberg made a trip to the city and returned this week. Announcement has been received of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Martin of Anacosta, Montana. Mrs. Martin before her marriage was Miss Josie Van Etten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Van Etten of Mombacus Heights.

Harold Van Etten has been drawing lumber from the sawmill this week.

A. Wells has a fine crop of strawberries.

Miss Margaret Smith, who has been spending some time with her grandparents here, returned to her home at Pataukunk for a time on Sunday.

Mrs. A. M. Green, who has been ill for some time, is slowly recovering.

Forbidden Vegetables. The ancient Egyptians, it is said, were forbidden to eat the onion, garlic and leek. According to the priests of Pelusium, the onion was barred because it caused a flow of tears, hunger and thirst, and hence was manifestly out of place in fasts and during religious ceremonies, says the Medical Record. It did not seem right to weep on occasions of joy or to be tormented with hunger and thirst on days set aside for fasting.

Found Red Dye in Fruit.

A German medical journal reports the injury of a young girl at Frankfurt from the point of a hypodermic needle which she swallowed while cutting a blood orange. Investigation developed the fact that the needle had been filled with a red aniline dye.

The girl, it seems, had purchased a dozen of the oranges. These were examined and it was found that all contained an injection of the same nature. It appears that frauds of this sort are no novelty in Germany, similar cases often having been reported—the chemical transformation of ordinary oranges into fake blood oranges.—From Le Petit Parisien, Paris. (Translated for the Kansas City Star).

STRAUB SAVED SECOND TIME

Brother of Slain Woman Leads
Lynchers, 500 Strong, on Lansing
Jail, But is Dissuaded From Attack
by Colonel Vandercreek.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Jackson, Mich., June 15.—Harold Mallet, brother of the Jackson well-known fire worker, who was attacked and slain a week ago, was to start for his home ranch with his sister's body today after being balked last night a second time in his effort to take vengeance on George Straub, the confessed slayer.

Mallet led an automobile party of 500 would-be lynchers in a thrilling ride to Lansing late last night, but consented to abandon the lynching attempt when Colonel Roy C. Vandercreek of the state department of public safety halted the motor caravan five miles from its destination and urged its members to return home.

Mallet abandoned the chase conditionally. His condition was that he be allowed to see the confessed murderer of his sister "so he would know him when they met again." The request was granted. The party continued its course and Mallet and four others spent half an hour in the Lansing city jail under the vigilant eyes of a hundred heavily armed police and state troopers, massed against an expected assault.

Then the erstwhile mob returned to Jackson in accordance with its pledge to Colonel Vandercreek.

RECITAL BY PUPILS OF PROFESSOR SNYDER

The studio of Prof. Arthur Snyder on John street was the scene on Wednesday evening of a very pleasing pianoforte recital given by his pupils, assisted by Mrs. Snyder. The entire program was played from memory and with apparent ease, so well had the young people prepared their selections. The tone production was good and considerable interest was shown by the pupils who had recently been working faithfully under the efficient instruction of their music master. While all did very well, mention might well be made of the playing of Miss Lethe Winchell, Miss Helen Scott, Miss Claudia Williams and Miss Melba Simmons. Their playing was exceptionally successful.

The program was as follows:

Piano duet, waltz (Rosalie's Party) Whollyhart
Helen Dunn and Prof. Snyder.

Piano solo, "On the Alpine Heights" Mansfield
Mary De Fen.

Piano solo, "Under the Lindens" Sartorio
Kenneth Happy.

Piano solo, "Dreams of Youth" Sartorio
Kathryn Happy.

Piano solo, "Golden Butterflies" Stone
Rose Weisler.

Piano duet, "Dance in the Mountains" Kirchner
Gladys Every and Prof. Snyder.

Piano solo, "The Wedding Song" Bolin
Dorothy Storms.

Vocal duet, "Serenade" Schubert
Mrs. Snyder and Prof. Snyder.

Piano solo, "The Alpine Hut" Laugel
Lethe Winchell.

Piano solo, "Elder Blossoms" Espen
Alison Scott.

Piano solo, "On the Meadow" Lichner
Edna Merritt.

Piano solo, "A Swedish Lullaby" Suddis
Beatrice Du Bois.

Piano solo, "Spring's Awakening" Peacock
Anna Cipric.

Vocal duet, "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah!" Lansing
Mrs. Snyder and Prof. Snyder.

Piano solo, "Over the Fields" (In June) Morris Helen Short.

Piano solo, "Impromptu Mazurka" Bolin
Claudia Williams.

Piano solo, "Rondo Capriccioso" Op. 11 Mendelssohn
Melba Simmons.

Distribution of souvenir musical compositions to each pupil.

Vocal duet, "L'Addio" Donizetti
Mrs. Snyder and Prof. Snyder.

ONE LIVELY EVENING FOR AMUSEMENT SEEKERS.

Between the baseball game at the fair grounds, the Smith Greater Shows across the viaduct in the town of Ulster and the camp of the 26th division of soldiers of the regular army on Athletic Field, the people of Kingston had an opportunity to amuse themselves Wednesday which was taken advantage of. There were crowds at each place from 6 o'clock on. At the baseball game the attendants had an extra attraction in concerts by the big brass band of the U. S. troops and a band of colored musicians connected with the Smith shows, the music being excellent and greatly enjoyed. On many of the streets soldiers could be seen walking about "seeing the town" and they stood in groups about middle Broadway from Railroad avenue to O'Neil street, that section attracting many flappers, some of whom, telling later their girl chums how they had just been talking with "one of the nicest soldiers in the regiment."

Children Need Much Sleep.

It has been shown to be doubtful if children can have too much sleep, and, up to twelve years of age, twelve hours solid sleep is a proper allowance for them. During the sleep of childhood, all the adjustments and developments are going on which will gradually develop the child into the grown-up man or woman. Children's nights should last all around the clock, and should be absolutely quiet and free from all disturbances.

Thanks, Not Going That Way.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

SPRINGTIME'S FROCKS

"Greetings, greetings, Mistress Springtime," said the Fairy Queen as Spring came along in all her lovely new frocks.

"I am glad to see you," the Fairy Queen said.

"And all the little Fairies said: 'We agree, with our Fairy Queen. We are overjoyed to see you.'"

"How nice it is to be welcome," said Mistress Springtime.

"You are always welcome," said the Fairy Queen. "Everyone is always glad to see you."

"That is nice," said Mistress Springtime in her soft warm voice.

"You have such lovely, lovely frocks, too," said the Fairy Queen.

"Ah, I am so glad you like them," said Mistress Springtime.

"We love them," said the Fairies.

"Ah," said Mistress Springtime. "I've often thought of wearing other costumes, but I always stick to the same styles. After all, I like them best."

"I love these styles in frocks and hats better than any others."

"I have a good many pretty things," said the Fairy Queen. "You bring with you everything so lovely."

"Yes," said Fairy Joy, "you bring the Aromatic Spicebush with its golden clusters of flowers on its leafless little branches. They come with you."

"They are so graceful!"

and they go to the dumpy parts of the woods.

"Love the Aromatic Spicebush flowers," she added.

"And, Mistress Springtime," said Fairy Princess Twilight Bell, "I love the dear familiar Pussy Willows."

"Oh, I'm very fond of Pussy," said Mistress Springtime. "All of her family have always been so loyal. There is something very appealing about Pussy Willow and her family."

"For pussy catkins are so soft and so friendly and her gay yellow drooping flowers which she changes to after awhile are so attractive."

"Pussy says she changes her costume for supper, you know! Yes, she says she wears her daytime frock for quite a long, long time and that it is a nice and useful simple, plain gray frock."

"Then when it is time to dress up she puts on her flowering yellow gown."

"She says that is dressing for supper because she waits some time before changing into her flowered costume."

"But as I've said to Pussy, if folks had to wait for their supper as long as Pussy takes to change from her simple frock, they'd be hungry to the point of starvation."

"But Pussy says that isn't what she means, exactly. She just rather likes the idea of saying she has a simple day frock and then another one to wear later."

"And that's true enough. Yes, Pussy and her family are lovely, indeed."

"I'm very fond of the Red Birch catkins, too, that drop so beautifully before it is time for the leaves," said Fairy Silver Star.

"And I love the Adder's Tongue flowers," said Fairy Thab.

"I must say, too," she added, "that I'm very fond of the Skunk Cabbage blossoms. It has such strong leaves, and it is about the first flower to come in the spring."

"Of course, only the Fly Family care for its odor, but I am always glad to see the first spring flowers."

"It means that you're coming, Mistress Springtime."

Mistress Springtime smiled, and as she did so, the buds on all the trees opened just a little further.

For they love Mistress Springtime's smile!

"Then I shall wear the usual frocks and hats each year," said Mistress Springtime. "I won't go in for new styles. I will wear the same familiar fashions, but will have every frock and hat very fresh and new."

"That is the right idea," said the Fairy Queen. "For, oh, Mistress Springtime, when anyone can follow the fashions you can, there should be no changes."

"To me there is no one who dresses in such lovely taste as Mistress Springtime!"

Lazy Person in School.

Miss Jones (severely)—Percy, who is the laziest person in this room?

Percy (innocently)—I dunno.

Miss Jones—You ought to. Who is it, when everybody else is industriously studying, sits and watches the rest or looks out of the window?

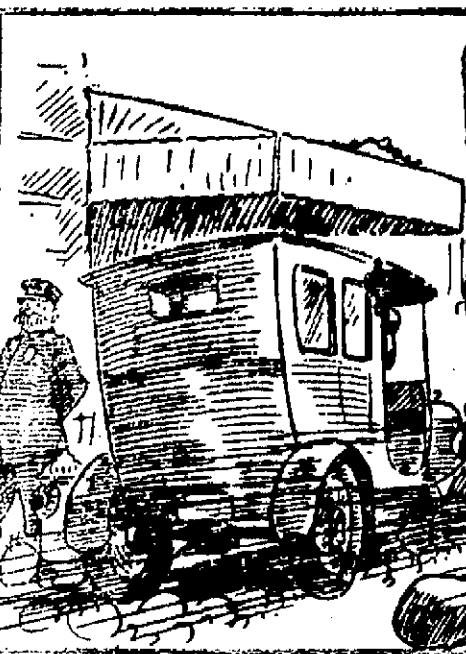

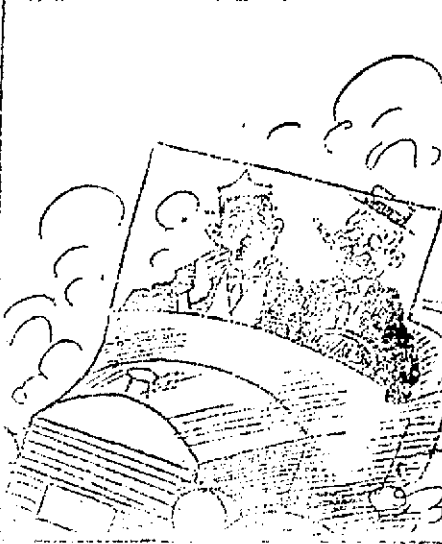

Percy (brightening)—Why, you, Miss Jones.

One Exception.

Nancy, age five, and her little neighbor, Frances, age five, were in the hammock on the back porch and were discussing weighty matters. Nancy was heard to say, "Yes, God made everything but the first day, and Betsy Ross made that."

The KITCHEN CABINET

A FEW WORTH WHILE CONFECTIONS

The best of all the recipes for which have been given for years many times, is the following:

Chocolate Nut Fudge.—Take two cups of granulated sugar, one-half cup of milk, one-third cup of corn syrup, two cups of butter and one to two squares of chocolate. Boil the soft ball stage, flavor with vanilla, let stand until partly cool, then stir until creamy. Pour into a greased pan and mark off into squares or drop by spoonfuls on a buttered sheet, adding nuts if desired.

Ginger Fudge.—Take one-half tablespoonful of butter, one cupful of milk, and two cups of sugar, boil to the soft ball stage, set in cold water and when cool, beat until creamy. Add one-fourth of a pound of dried crystallized ginger and one-half cupful of shredded coconut. Cut in squares.

Coconut Dream.—Cook together one and one-half cups of sugar, two cups of butter and one-half cupful of milk, to the soft ball stage. Add one-third of a cupful of shredded coconut and nuts, cut in bits. Add one-half teaspoonful of vanilla for flavoring. Stir until creamy, drop by spoonfuls on waxed paper. This makes twenty pieces.

California Grilled Almonds.—Take one cupful of sugar, two tablespoons of orange, two tablespoons of lemon juice. Blanch the almonds and dry thoroughly. Boil the sugar and fruit juices until the syrup forms a thread. Add the almonds and cook until the syrup turns yellow. Remove instantly and stir until it sugars. Cool; separate the almonds.

Sierra Turkish Delight.—Take two cups of apricot pulp, one and one-half pounds of powdered sugar, one teaspoonful of cornstarch, three teaspoonfuls of lemon juice. Cook the apricots, sugar, starch and juice; cool and pour on to a powdered sugar board. Cut in squares when cool. Almond flavoring may be used. To prepare the pulp, stew and strain dried apricots.

The Electric Fish.

Certain fishes exhibit peculiar electrical phenomena of muscles, nerves and heart, which have given them the name of electric fishes. These have the power of giving electric shocks from specially constructed and living electrical batteries.

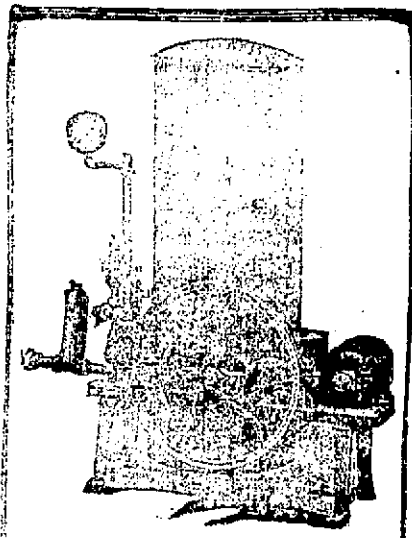

Set Difficulties Under Foot.

It has been said that "a poor beginning sometimes makes a good ending." Whether this be so or not it is certain that when handicaps are overcome there is real achievement. "Difficulties show what men are."

Anxious Landlord.

A woman living in a London suburb who said that her husband was very ill, complained to a magistrate that the landlord called every day, and sometimes twice a day, to inquire if he were dead yet.

One Person at Least Who Cannot See Anything in the Latest Popular Amusement.

"I'm through with Greenwich Village for good," the out-of-towner told her city cousin. "It was false to me in my hour of need. Furthermore, I'm haunted by wireless."

"You don't say so?"

"At home I led a terribly conventional life. It was boring, but I managed to endure it. My brother is a rather clever talker, you know, and we were the best of pals—until he took up wireless telephony."

"So that's why you came to town so suddenly?"

"It is! My life was just one continuous discussion of radiophones, P.D.Q. stations, antennae and wot not! But the thing I hated most was my brother's enchantment with the night radio concerts. Every time we settled down for a chat and he promised to reform from his wireless craze, he'd get word that there was a concert in Newark and off he'd dash to his wireless telephone."—New York Times.

She Settled Matters.

One day at school the subject of class president was brought up and the suggestion that we vote on it. I was not particularly fond of any of the girls, so to settle matters I voted for myself, never thinking that I would be found out. When the votes were read out in front of the class it was found that every one in the class had voted for me. They all knew I had voted for myself.—Chicago Tribune.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots.
How to Remove Easily

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case. Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Advertisement.

COLORED STARS
FADED 7 TO 1

Battery Wildness and Errors Give Colonials Game—Coyle shines With Stick in Light Hitting Contest—Loss of Other Music.

Add another victory to the Colonials' record for the year. "Chap" Johnson's Philadelphia Colored Stars, one of the strongest of the colored teams, found the Colonials too much for them at the fair grounds Wednesday afternoon and went down to a 7 to 1 defeat. While Bud Culliton held the Stars in check, Bobby Coyle did the clouting necessary for the Colonials to put over the victory.

A three base hit by Coyle in the first with two men on the bases, and a home run drive in the fifth were big factors in the Colonials' victory. The Kingston team got only three hits off the deliveries of Pierce and Gardner, two of them going to Coyle. But wildness on the part of the Philadelphia pitchers, and some errors inserted at critical moments by the Stars' inner defense, gave the game to the Colonials.

The big Wednesday crowd of fans saw not only a ball game but had a musical treat as well. A band from the Twenty-sixth Infantry, camped at the Athletic Field Wednesday, and a colored band from the Smith Brothers' carnival now playing here served to make things lively. Quite a number of the soldiers took advantage of the invitation given by the Colonial management to see the game.

Owing to a death in Matty Deagan's family, Captain Schrick was again forced to change his lineup. Kid Moore was shifted over to short stop and "Red" Atkins, a Kingston boy who is being given a try-out by the Colonials, took Moore's place on second. Fitzgerald and Glaser were back in the game, the latter still showing the effects of the "Charley-horse" he recently sustained.

Coyle wasn't the only home-run artist of the game, Smith sending a long drive to center for four sacks in the opening frame. It was one of four hits made by the Stars off Culliton, and the only one to be converted into a run.

The Colonials started their attack right off the reel, getting three runs in the first with only one hit to help them. Fitzgerald was safe on S. Johnson's error, and when Pierce threw too late to second on Jack Robins' bunt both runners reached their bags. Fitzgerald went to third and Robins to second on Rice's sacrifice. Coyle sent both runners home with a smash to right that netted him three sacks, and scored himself on a short passed ball by White.

Two more runs came over in the second. Moore went down on four balls and made third when White let one of Pierce's shots get by him. Atkins lanned on his first appearance as a Colonial. A fast ball from Pierce's delivery struck Culliton on the arm, and the Kingston pitcher went to first. That was enough for Pierce, and Gardner relieved him in the box. Fitzgerald, first man to face the newcomer fled out to right, but Robins sent Moore home with a single to center. Gardner filled the bases by sending Rice to first on four balls, and when Smith failed to pick up Coyle's grounder Schrick, running in place of Culliton by consent of the opposing captain, scored with the second run of the inning.

Coyle's home run over the left field fence, his third in the last three games, and the removal of "Chap" Johnson from the game in the fifth, were the chief features of the latter innings. Johnson who took White's place behind the bat in the third, took exception to Umpire Jordan's decisions on balls and strikes, and when his language toward the arbiter became offensive Jordan ruled him out of the game. Johnson was decidedly reluctant about getting out, but finally did so when Jordan drew his watch and threatened to forfeit the contest.

How to Make and Use It By A. HYATT VERRILL

VI. TOOLS AND SUPPLIES REQUIRED

To give an entire or complete list of the various tools and supplies required for making, setting up and using wireless telephones is practically impossible. In the first place, some people can work advantageously with fewer tools than others; some people are naturally "handy" or inventive and can find uses for odds and ends which would appear worthless to others; some people must economize on tools and supplies, others can spend an unlimited amount, while still others prefer to purchase most of their appliances ready-made and merely put them together or set them up.

For these reasons, the tools and supplies listed below are only those which will prove most necessary and as their quality, size and number will depend largely upon the work to be done and one's pocketbook, no prices or estimates of their cost have been given.

- | TOOLS | SUPPLIES |
|---|--|
| One large screwdriver. | Wire nails. |
| One Brad-awl set of awls, screwdrivers, etc., or small and medium sized screwdrivers. | Wood screws (flat head), assorted steel or brass. |
| One gimlet. | Wood screws (round head), assorted brass. |
| One hack saw frame and saws. | Washers for round-head screws. |
| Panel or cross-cut saw. | Small brass belts and nuts, assorted. |
| Mitre-saw and mitre-box. | Emery paper. |
| Obisels and gouges. | Wire of various sizes (see directions), copper, plain or bare. |
| Three-cornered file. | Same insulated (see directions). |
| Round or rat-tail file. | Stiff cardboard. |
| Flat file. | Paraffine wax. |
| Sandingpaper. | Good glue. |
| Smoothing or block-plane. | Sealing wax. |
| Small bench (iron) vise. | White shellac. |
| Bit-stock with bits and augers. | Fiber board or bakelite. |
| Breast or hand, geared drill with twist drills. | Hard rubber knobs. |
| Flat-nosed pliers. | Flexible insulated wire cord. |
| Round-nosed pliers. | Porcelain insulators. |
| Cutting pliers (flat-nosed and cutting pliers combined may be used). | Tin foil. |
| Soldering iron, solder and flux. | Binding posts. |
| Tack hammer. | Terminals. |
| Claw hammer. | Varnished cambric tubing. |
| Carpenter's square. | Strong twine or string. |
| Set, yard stick or rule. | Sheet brass or brass strips (see directions). |
| Set of small screw-taps and dies. | Sheet copper. |
| Compasses or dividers. | Adhesive tape. |

The last is one of the most useful articles one can have. It is useful in wrapping joints of wires; in covering wires as an insulator; in attaching wires where they cannot be soldered; in making temporary joints or connections; in covering coils or holding the wires on coils in place; in holding parts of cases or boxes together while they are being glued or nailed; to cover a cut in your finger, as well as for a thousand and one other purposes. But do not use the cheap, weak grades of tape sold in ten-cent stores and by many bicycle and automobile accessory dealers. Use a good, strong, rubber-covered tape such as Tiro, for while it costs more it is worth many times as much more. The cheap tapes dry up, lose their stickiness upon exposure to air; the thin rubber, if any, soon disappears and leaves only the fabric which is not an insulator; they have no tensile strength, whereas high-grade tapes are exceedingly strong; they are coated heavily with rubber, they never dry up and they retain their tenacity for a long time.

Varnished cambric tubing, known also as "Spaghettil" is the best material for covering joints in wires and should be used wherever possible. Finally, let me advise you never to throw away anything which you have on hand in the way of electrical supplies, wires, screws, nails, etc. One never knows when such things may come in handy and may be put to some good and useful purpose, thus saving time and money.

SAM BERNSTEIN CO.

SAMSONVILLE.

Samsonville, June 15.—On Friday last Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Shults of Wittenberg motored to this place and called on relatives.

Floyd Beesmer and gentleman friend motored from S. Fallsburgh on Sunday and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Beesmer. Accompanied by Miss Mildred Decker and Miss Edna Davis they motored around the Ashokan dam and returned to take supper with Miss Edna.

For some reason our pastor did not put in an appearance on Sunday evening, possibly the heavy shower hindered his coming so far, but several people gathered at the church held a song service with Bible reading and prayer, and a solo by E. Ter-nahien and everyone seemed to enjoy the service.

S. K. Bishop of Wittenberg is spending some time with his daughter Mrs. H. L. Myers and on Monday Albert Myers and he made a business trip to Kingston by auto.

Virgil Barringer of Palentown was in this place early Monday morning. Melvin Barringer and wife went to Ellenville on Saturday to consult a doctor. We hope her health may be better soon.

Miss Eva Davis expects to spend some time with her sister, Mrs. Earl Carson at Hobart.

Floyd Shurter and the milk tester from Breachaud's called on his mother on Friday evening.

parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Van Keuren.

Mrs. Sadie Kahl and daughter of Allaben Heights are spending a short vacation in New York city.

Watson Freer, Jr., of Kingston was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Van Keuren the week end.

John Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Charles DuBois of Kingston were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gulnick last week Tuesday.

Elizabeth Pearsall of Peekskill was a week end guest at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cramer, Mrs. Goodsell and daughter Janet and Eleanor Cramer all of Kingston were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Van Keuren last Sunday.

Miss Mary Merante has returned to Allaben from Connecticut, where she has been attending high school for the past year.

Robert Boyce of the Board of Water Police station left Allaben last Tuesday and will be stationed at Yonkers. Mr. Boyce had made a great many friends while in Allaben.

Charles Ryan, Sergeant of the police precinct moved to Prattsville Tuesday of this week.

STATE CONTROL OF POOL ROOMS

Begins September 1—No City Licenses Effective After That—Up to Municipalities Whether to Refund License Fees Already Paid.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Albany, June 15.—City or village ordinances now licensing billiard and "pool" rooms will become no longer effective September 1, when the state law licensing such places goes into effect, according to an opinion of Attorney General Charles D. Newton just given to the State Tax Commission.

Furthermore, the attorney general holds, whether fees already paid for licenses under local ordinances shall be refunded in part because of the shortening of the license year when the state assumes control of billiard rooms, is entirely a matter for local authorities to decide.

New York and Buffalo are the only places in the state not coming under the provisions of the new law which, among other changes, places a legal ban upon the word "pool" in describing what must hereafter be called the game of "pocket billiards."

TO RECEIVE FIRST COMMUNION ON SUNDAY.

The large class of candidates recently confirmed by Bishop Manning at Holy Cross Church will receive their first communion next Sunday morning at the 7:30 o'clock Mass. The rector of the parish will be the celebrant and he will be assisted in the administration by some of the fathers from the monastery at West Park.

At 10:30 a. m. the Corpus Christi procession will be held in which the newly communicated will participate with the many little veiled flower girls, the choir, altar boys and clergy. At the high Mass, which will be sung to an elaborate musical setting, the Rev. John Sears Baldwin, O. F. M., will deliver a special sermon to those who have made their first communion. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock the last sung afternoon service will be held. The children's choir will furnish the music and Father Mabry will preach the sermon.

SHRINERS PICK WASHINGTON AND ELECT OFFICERS.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

San Francisco, June 15.—Washington, D. C., was chosen by the Imperial Council of the Order of the Mystic Shrine for its next meeting place. The council also re-elected two trustees for the Shriners' hospitals for crippled children. They were W. Frederick Kendrick of Philadelphia and Dr. Oscar M. Lundstrum, Helena, Montana. David W. Crossland of Alabaster Temple, Montgomery, Alabama, was elected imperial high priest and prophet, and Clarence M. Dunbar of Palestine Temple, Providence, R. I., imperial oriental guide. Ancient Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. These were the only offices contested.

Egypt of America.

Cortes touched first in Yucatan in 1519 on his way to conquer Mexico. One of his followers who undertook the subjugation of the peninsula in 1527 found the wonderful ruined temples and palaces of the old Maya cities whose beauties and wonders have earned for Yucatan the title of "The Egypt of America."

E. CENTENNIAL OBSERVANCE HERE

One hundred years ago Methodism began in Kingston and the society was organized. Methodism now has three strong and flourishing churches here and all are doing a fine work.

St. James's Church officials have taken steps to fittingly observe the centennial anniversary of this conference. The committee which will be in charge of the affair is composed of Myron Teller, W. R. Gibson, Herbert Carl, A. C. Conroy, Irving J. Rose, Mrs. E. L. Merritt and Mrs. E. L. Merritt. It is expected that all the churches of the denomination will have some share in observing the centennial.

STONE RIDGE.

Stone Ridge, June 14.—There will be moving pictures in the Stone Ridge on every Wednesday night, beginning with the 21st. Wednesday night the picture will be "Hills of Missing Men" as well as a comedy and news. Pictures will begin at 8 o'clock standard time, or 8 o'clock.

The Rev. A. E. Klenjue will preach as a candidate in the Reformed Church on Sunday morning, June 18.

Regular range meeting on Monday, June 19. A. E. Tice of Spring Lake will be at this meeting.

C. F. DuBois, director of the Agricultural School will give lecture in the Grange Hall on Sunday evening, June 25. Subject, "How to Keep Boys on the Farm." Everybody welcome. No charge. 8 o'clock standard time.

A fireproof booth for moving pictures is being installed in the Grange hall.

At the C. E. Society services last Sunday evening thirty were present. The "Blue" side of the C. E. Society entertained the "Red" side with a picnic in "Cantine Grove" on Wednesday evening.

John Krom and Don Gillespie, who recently purchased homes in the village, are making many improvements.

COMMITTEE FOR D. OF A. FOOD SALE SATURDAY

Every member of the Catholic Daughters of America is requested not to forget the food sale on Saturday at the Rose-Gorman-Rose store and respond to the appeal for bread, biscuits, crullers, pie, home made candy, etc., and asked to have contributions at the store by 11 a. m. when the sale opens. The members of the food sale committee are: The Mrs. Sabyna Howley, Rose J. Hickey, Mary I. Miller, Margaret Gorman, Mary Kegel, Kathryn McLaughlin, Kathryn Dean, Kathryn Leacock, Julia Hanson, Margaret Reynolds, Pat Deegan, Anna Clarke, Amelia Cashman, Mary Herrick, Nora A. Becker and Miss Loretta Ketter.

Idiosyncrasies.

The thing to be remembered is that there are personal idiosyncrasies in every worker, and that each worker does some kind of work especially well and other tasks indifferently or poorly. It is hardly worth while for the mistress to attempt to change a worker's natural manner of work or habits. Some workers plod slowly for hours and they are not the kind that can ever work quickly for short periods. The thing to do is to try to find out how they work best and improve their efficiency along that particular line.

Remarkable Februarys.

February without a full moon is found by S. H. Gayther, an English lequiver, to have occurred in the nineteenth century in 1808, 1847, 1886 and 1905, but the present century will leave a record of only two instances—1915 and 1921. In the next four centuries there will be 14 such instances. Very curiously, five Sundays in February have about the same frequency, and happen thirteen times regularly in four centuries. The two occurrences are not connected.

Orange Blossoms in Arabia.

Orange blossoms as a bridal wreath were first used by the Arabs. The orange branch bears fruit and flowers at the same time, and is therefore considered to be the emblem of prosperity.

LUTHERAN CHURCH WINDOWS DONATED

Twelve Memorial Windows for the Spring Street Lutheran Church are already donated. The designs and the inscriptions being:

1—"The Good Shepherd." In loving memory of Ida Fischer, died 1922. Donated by Carl G. Fischer.

2—"Christ Blessing Little Children." Dedicated to the memory of their sainted children, Lizzie, Lillie, Charlie, George, Marie, Jennie and Willie, by Charles and Mathilda Andrus.

3—"The Walk of Jesus with the Disciples to Emmaus." In loving memory of Elisabeth D. Salzmann, died 1920. Donated by Adam J. and Albert Salzmann.

4—"Christ, the Sower." Donated by the Young People's Society.

5—"Christ in the House of Martha and Mary at Bethany." Donated by the Ladies' Aid Society.

6—"The Good Samaritan." Donated by the Sick and Aid Society.

7—"The Ascension of Christ." In loving memory of Arthur F. Gill, died 1918, in the service of his country. Donated by his mother, Mary Radatz.

8—"The Resurrection of Christ." In sacred memory of Hermann Schmidtke, died 1889. Donated by the Reverend and Mrs. A. Schmidtke.

9—"Christ in Gethsemane." In loving memory of Albert Gauss, died 1902, and Mathilde Gauss, died 1901. Donated by their children, Theodore C. Gauss and Clara L. Birdall.

10—"The Baptism of Christ." In loving memory of George Hauck, died 1912; Barbara Hauck, died 1908, and John Hauck, died 1920. Donated by Mary M. Hauck and Armenia Hauck.

11—"The Boy Jesus in the Temple." Donated by the Sunday school.

12—"The Birth of Christ." In loving memory of Frederick Bauer, died 1913. Donated by his wife, Caroline Bauer.

In the actual inscriptions on the windows a Roman cross will be shown instead of the word "died." The windows will be manufactured by the Von Gerichten Art Glass Co., Columbus, Ohio, and will be of the same style and quality as Munich windows, the designers and craftsmen being Munich men. All windows will be glazed with quarter inch thick ribbed plate glass and will have square bottom ventilators and circular ventilators. The windows will be installed the first week in October of this year. The cost of the twelve windows is $5,460.

Man Really Dependable.

People who are all adroit and not mentally dependable, who have no fixity of purpose, and are not reliable, are not the men we turn to in emergencies. It is the self-confident man, the man who feels sure of himself, the man who is sure of his philosophy and of his principles, the man of great faith, on whom we depend in supreme crises, when others are driven to the wall.—Exchange.

Mlle. Lenglen's Heart OBJECT OF CONCERN.

Further Discourages Championship Ambitions.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Paris, June 15.—A father's love is pitted today against a daughter's desire for a sport's championship in the case of Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, the famous French tennis player.

Mlle. Lenglen wants to go to England to take part in the Wimbledon tournament, where she may meet Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the American woman champion, in the final. Her father, Charles Lenglen, does not want her to go. And thereby hangs the struggle.

"Suzanne is purely and simply an amateur; she is not a professional," said Charles Lenglen, following his daughter's departure for Dieppe to consult a specialist on account of illness. "As an amateur I do not think that she is under any obligations to the sporting public. If she plays at Wimbledon, it is her right to wait until ten minutes before the games start before she says whether or not she is going to take part."

"I have urged her not to play almost every day because a father's love is stronger than a desire to see his daughter a world champion."

It is understood that Jacques Dabot, famous French heart specialist, warned Suzanne a week ago that it would be dangerous for her to play.

WEST SAUGERTIES.

West Saugerties, June 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Becker have returned to their home in Connecticut after spending a couple of weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cordes and Mrs. Engelmann of Saugerties spent Sunday with relatives in this place.

Word has been received here of the death of Henry Seifelsch, last week. She had many friends here who extend their sincere sympathy to the family and husband.

James Cole and wife, who have been spending the past two weeks with friends in Tannersville, have returned to their home.

Mr. Shaw is spending a few days with his wife and daughter here.

Norman Robinson, and Henry Reynolds of Saugerties, members of the Merry Melody Orchestra, spent Saturday night and part of Sunday with their leader, John Cole. All took dinner at the home of S. P. Cole on Sunday.

John Carn, who was called as a juror to Kingston, was not retained long, as he returned in the middle of the week.

John Schaik is doing good work on the bridge, putting up the second wall. It was a very much needed piece of work for the safety of pedestrians as well as motorists, and besides looks much better than its former condition.

We have had some real wind here during a couple of days, but it has done no great damage.

Richard Cole of Platte Clove spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday with his cousin, Thomas Freedom.

Olex Hess is helping Mrs. Brown, Mr. Hess and son, Jacob, have gone to New York city.

The Impossible.

They say nothing is impossible in this world, but you can't fry an egg on a fly-swatter without burning it.

SENATE PRODS HOOVER TO ACT

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, June 15.—Faced with threats of a Senate investigation unless he finds a way to keep coal prices from skyrocketing, Secretary of Commerce Hoover went into conference today with operators and retailers to make another effort to prevent profiteering during the strike.

Hoover's principal complaint is that operators in some districts are not holding to maximum prices agreed upon in early conferences here and that higher prices in some parts of the country have resulted in criticism of the entire coal industry. He will endeavor to effect a price-fixing agreement applicable to all producing districts which the operators may adhere to voluntarily.

WILLOW.

Willow, June 15.—Miss Ella Lane is attending commencement exercises at Houghton Seminary.

Miss Grace Shultz of Shady was a recent visitor at Willow.

Miss Marion Pitts is entertaining a house party at her summer home here.

Mrs. William Van Wagner, who has been seriously ill, is reported to be much improved.

August Hogenmeyer returned to New York after having spent two weeks with his family here.

Mrs. B. V. Bishop is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hoyt.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hoffman spent Sunday with Captain and Mrs. Blythe.

Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Miller of Brooklyn were guests at the Willow Farm House last week.

Clifford Sagendorf has purchased the Luther Van Deborgart property at Lake Hill.

Miss Marguerite Gauld spent the week-end in Kingston.

Walter Hoffman has accepted the contract to remodel the buildings on the Sagendorf farm recently purchased by Thomas Elder. The property will now be known as Elderberry Inn.

Telephones are to be installed in the residences on Crosspatch Mountain.

The Saturday night dances at Grover Lane's hall in Lake Hill are attracting a number of patrons from Willow.

Miss Jessie Blythe spent Monday in Kingston.

A great many improvements are being made at The Willow Store. Charles Lane has completed the work on the Eighmyer bungalow.

Max George is having an artesian well driven on his property here.

The Wood bungalow is open for the season.

We are sorry to know of Mrs. Everett Mosher's illness.

The storm Sunday damaged a great many fruit trees in this vicinity.

The wild strawberry crop is reported to have been unusually large.

Judge and Mrs. A. B. Westervelt, Miss Helen Westervelt of Roslyn, N. Y., and Miss Alice Brown of New York city were recent guests of Captain and Mrs. Harry Blythe.

LUTHERAN MINISTERIUM TO MEET IN ALBANY

The Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium of the State of New York and adjacent states will meet for its 132nd convention, June 18-23, in St. John's Church, 160 Central Avenue, Albany, N. Y., the Rev. Yost Brandt, pastor, Confessional and communion service, Monday at 8 p. m. First business session will open Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The Spring Street Lutheran Church of this city will be represented by the Rev. A. Schmidtke and delegate Jacob Schantz. The ministerium of New York is the second oldest Lutheran Synod in America, organized 1786 in Albany, N. Y., and is allied with the United Lutheran Church of America.

"Biglow Papers."

The "Biglow Papers" were a series of humorous and satirical poems which at two critical times in the nation's history made James Russell Lowell not only a popular poet but an important figure in the life of the country. The first, relating to the Mexican war, appeared in 1848; the second, dealing with the Civil war and reconstruction, in 1867. Both were signed with the fictitious name of Hosea Biglow.

An entirely new kind of soap

For all the regular family wash

No other soap is needed for the entire family wash

Just soaking loosens all the dirt

Let soaking do almost all the work for you instead of just a little. Soaking in big, lasting, lukewarm Rinso suds loosens all the dirt. A little dry Rinso rubbed on the places where the dirt is most ground-in removes every trace of it.

If you like to boil

A Rinso soaking makes boiling unnecessary, but if you like to boil your white cottons pour enough Rinso solution in your boiler to give you the suds you like. The other soaps and the soap powder you used to use are not needed with Rinso.

If you use a washing machine

Help it to do its best work. Rinso suds have the body needed to get clothes clean without any rubbing. With Rinso you do not have to use a soap powder or any other soap.

Use enough Rinso to get the big lasting suds that loosen all the dirt

ACCORD.

Accord, June 15.—Mrs. Hannah M.
Davis, mother of Samuel Davis of Accord and a former resident of Accord died in her 67th year at her home at Napanoch on Saturday, June 10, after a painful illness of several months.
She leaves several adult children and other relatives to mourn her loss.
Funeral was held from the house
Wednesday afternoon.

Paid for Her Passage.

One day my mother and I drove to town in a buggy that had been standing outside the barn. When we got to town, I raised a blanket from the floor of the buggy and imagine my surprise when a hen jumped out of the buggy and started to cackle because she had laid an egg under the blanket.—Exchange.

DAIRYMEN'S LEAGUE REPORTS

have been honestly administered during the year under review."
Treasurer Kilpatrick reported assets of $12,068,349.11, of which $891,515.27 was cash on hand and in bank. Inventories of finished and unfinished products in process amounted to $1,216,927.14. Cash in banks as a sinking fund for the retirement of certificates of indebtedness and mortgages and for payment of interest amounted to $349, 905.18. Land, buildings and equipment were inventoried at $4,116,
184.79.
The liabilities show $4,307,890.42 deducted from members' accounts for working capital and retirement of outstanding indebtedness.

"I am sure that you men have a genuine feeling of satisfaction when you realize that this association is a success," Mr. Kilpatrick said. "I also am sure that there are several hundred producers who are reaping the benefits of the efforts put forth by the members of the association in securing prices for their milk which they would not receive if it were not for the cooperative association. I say these men have a feeling of satisfaction for the reason that the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association is the prime factor in determining the price of milk month by month, which only goes to prove that they are heartily in sympathy with collective bargaining but would rather sit on the outside and not contribute anything to the success of the organization but ride along on the old chariot that the good and true men who have the spirit of cooperation are pushing."

Late in the afternoon the delegates listened to an address by John D.
Miller, vice-president and general counsel of the association.

E. C. Weatherly of the G. L. F.
Exchange and R. F. Lewis of the membership department of the association also spoke.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF IRISH PEACE SOON

By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, June 15.—Hope ran high in official circles today that the long-standing Irish trouble had definitely been settled.

The cabinet held a meeting at which a report was made by the signatories of the Anglo-Irish peace treaty upon the revisions of the Irish Free State constitution.

Colonial Secretary Winston Churchill was in a most optimistic frame of mind and said that he hoped to be able to make formal announcement of a settlement of the Irish trouble in the house of commons this evening.

The ministers have agreed to adhere to the constitution if it is within the bounds prescribed for the Free State by the Anglo-Irish treaty.

Discount Rate Lowered.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, June 15.—The minimum discount rate of the Bank of England today was reduced from four percent to 3 1/2 percent.

NO STORM KING ROAD THIS YEAR

Will Be Finished in August But Not Opened Because of Letting of Contract for New Road In.

Albany, June 15.—The new state highway around Storm King Mountain in Orange county, considered one of the greatest road engineering feats in the state's history, will not be opened this year as originally planned. Highway Commissioner Sisson said today.

The road will be completed in August and the village of Cornwall had planned a public celebration in honor of the event.

The letting of a contract for a new road through Cornwall, at one end of the Storm King mountain, is the reason given by Commissioner Sisson for postponing until next year, the opening of the Storm King highway.

About the Folks

Mrs. Oscar Johnson and daughter, Arline Mae, of Greenwich, Conn., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hazzard.

Miss Mary Bray of Kinderhook, N. Y., is spending some time as the guest of Miss Katherine O. Van Keuren at her home on Broadway.

Among Americans returning home from Europe in the past few days were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hungerford, of Kingston, who arrived at New York on Tuesday last on the White Star liner Majestic, from Southampton and Cherbourg.

Morris Brosman of 301 Washington avenue has returned from New York where he welcomed his wife and daughters, aged 14 and 12 years, who arrived Saturday last from Warsaw Poland, whom he had not seen in over seven years.

Mrs. W. C. Schryver of Albany avenue left town for Ocean Grove today to spend a week with Mr. Schryver, who has been stopping at the Grand Atlantic Hotel for the past month for his health. Mr. Schryver is much improved and intends to soon return to Kingston.

ROOSEVELT GETS REPORT IN KAPLAN MATTER.

Washington, June 15.—Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt today received from Admiral Wilson, commandant of the United States Naval Academy, a report on the alleged eluding of Leonard Kaplan, a Jewish student, in the year book of the academy.

Roosevelt has the report under advisement and it was understood that he would order that the students in charge of the book be subjected to further disciplinary action at the hands of the Annapolis authorities.

WARD INDICTED ON SOME CHARGE

Authorities Maintain Secrecy About Indictment Found by Westchester Grand Jury but Sheriff Sends His Whole Force to Make Arrest.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

White Plains, N. Y., June 15.—Walter S. Ward, son of the millionaire head of the Ward Baking Company, who admitted that he had shot and killed Clarence Peters, an ex-sailor, as the result of an alleged blackmail plot, was indicted by the Westchester county grand jury this afternoon. It was reported that the indictment charges murder, but this was not officially confirmed. Peters' body was found in the Kensico reservoir road on the morning of May 16.

Although the authorities concerned made the utmost mystery of the indictment and it could not be immediately learned what the count actually charged, it was nevertheless Sheriff Werner of Westchester county immediately sent all his deputies to arrest young Ward and take him to the supreme court to plead before Justice Joseph Morschauser.

NEW YORK PRODUCE MARKET

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, June 15.—The state department of farms and markets reports that the first shipment of green peas arrived from Madison county today. The stock was mostly of small size and sold at $3.25 per bushel basket.

The onion market was slightly firmer under fresh receipts. The demand was moderate.

Strawberries from the Oswego section arrived on the New York market for the first time this morning. The stock was of ordinary condition and brought from 25 to 30 cents per quart. Receipts from the Hudson river section continued light and the demand was moderate.

Raspberries were slightly lower under more liberal supplies and a less active demand.

Hudson river cherry supplies were liberal and the demand good for fancy large red and black sweets. The market was steady for good but weak for poor stock.

Water Board Influenced By Something Else Writes Clough.

Woodstock, June 15.—Regarding the communication appearing in the Freeman for June 14, signed by Santitas, it seems that the ideas of this protected person need refuting. First, this mysterious writer labors under a false impression, in that Woodstock's recent and pending objections against the infringements on natural privileges comes not from summer boarders alone nor from merely those who disregard the rights of the majority but the united action, manifested in small part by the bathing party of last Saturday a. m., was the action of several hundred people composed of all classes of Woodstock residents, chiefly of whom are property owners.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, June 15.—The stock market showed a strong tone at the opening today. Mexican Petroleum selling ex-dividend was 1 point higher at 137 1/4. Standard Oil 3/4 to 34 3/4. Hudson Motor traded in for the first time, started 1 point higher at 24 and Studebaker was 1/4 higher at 125. U. S. Steel lost 1/4 to 99 1/4. Corn Products moved up 1/4 to 102 1/2.

The market showed a generally bullish tone prevailing in the forenoon. Pool and speculative combinations were active in many issues helping along advances. Mexican Petroleum rose 1 1/4 to 137 1/4 from which it reacted to 136. Studebaker yielded from 125 1/4 to 124 1/4. The marine stocks were weak, the common stock yielding 1 1/4 to 13 1/4 and the preferred fell 1/4 to 75 3/4.

The market was weak and unsettled throughout the afternoon, large selling orders coming into the market from many sources. This selling caused losses of from 1 to 7 points in the active issues. Standard Oil of New Jersey fell seven points to 180 1/4 and Marine preferred dropped 7 1/2 to 71, while the common was 3 points lower at 18. U. S. Steel yielded 2 points to 97 1/4.

The market closed weak; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds irregular.

PLEDGE AID IN SECURING MILLBANK FUND

Kiwanis Passes Resolution—Ball Players Ordered Out.

The Kiwanis Club today passed a resolution to support the effort now being made by civic bodies here to secure for Ulster county the Millbank tuberculosis demonstration entailing the bringing here of $100,000 and the building of a new tuberculosis hospital.

All the club's ball players are ordered (that word is authorized) to report at the Athletic Field Friday evening at 6:30 for practice.

SPECIAL APPEAL SOUGHT FOR MORSE AND OTHERS.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, June 15.—Charles W. Morse, New York banker and shipbuilder, his three sons and eight others indicted for conspiracy to defraud the United States through war contracts, today filed in the District of Columbia supreme court an application for a special appeal from the decision of Justice McCoy, overruling their demurrers. The application was taken under advisement.

ALBANY TOLD OF PLANNED N. Y. C. OUTLAYS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Albany, June 15.—George W. Kettledge, chief engineer of the New York Central Railroad, told the local chamber of commerce at a luncheon today that the Central plans to spend $15,000,000 in this vicinity within the next five years. He said this includes the construction of the new bridge across the Hudson near Castleton, the new freight yards at Poughkeepsie, and extensive improvements in the west Albany freight and shop yards.

Rail Wage Decision Soon.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Chicago, June 15.—The decision of the United States Railway Labor Board fixing wage scales for clerks, signal men, stationery firemen and others and marine department employees is expected to be handed down today. It is understood that the decision, which will affect about 350,000 employees, will amount to a total annual reduction in wages of about $50,000,000.

Junior League Picnic.

The Junior League of the Clinton Avenue Church will hold a picnic at Forsyth Park on Saturday afternoon, June 17th. Parents of the children are invited to attend. Both parents and children will bring their lunch. Ice cream will be served by the league to members and parents. Those wishing to go in a body will meet at the church at 2 o'clock.

Get Policeman's Coat.

"It's a hard life," said the traffic policeman. "What's the trouble?" asked the genial old gentleman. "I had to call down a handsome dame just now for violating a traffic law. The look she gave me was bad enough, but the way her pocket dog yawned in my face was positively insulting."

INSANITY TO BE DELORME PLEA

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Montreal, Que., June 15.—When Father Adelard Delorme was placed on trial today in the court of Kings Bench, charged with the murder of his half brother Raoul, it was understood that a plea of insanity would be made.

Sixty witnesses were summoned. They were about equally divided for prosecution and defense. Among the physicians for the defense were eight physicians, who have known the defendant and his family for years, and the prisoner's three sisters.

It was understood that there would be an immediate ruling on the defendant's sanity.

ROCKEFELLERS PASS THROUGH

World's Richest Man Motoring to Tarrytown—His Son, John D. Jr., Misses One Ferry in Viewing the Aerator at Ashokan Reservoir.

John D. Rockefeller, said to be the world's richest man, passed through Kingston on his way to Tarrytown this afternoon, but few of the residents of the city knew it. The Rockefeller party were on the way home from Cooperstown.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., missed the ferry that conveyed his father across the Hudson river and had to wait until the next. He had missed the ferry by stopping to watch the aerator basin of the Ashokan Reservoir.

In a brief talk with a Freeman reporter while waiting for the ferry Mr. Rockefeller, Jr., said that this was the first time he had seen the reservoir since the work was completed. He had been a visitor at the scene when construction was underway. He said that the aerator basin with the water playing high in the air made a beautiful sight.

Mr. Rockefeller said that he had been under the impression that the new bridge the highway department had constructed crossed the river but learned later that it crossed the Rondout creek.

With the younger Mr. Rockefeller were his three young sons and chauffeur. It soon became noised about among the taxi drivers and those waiting for the ferry that the quiet and unassuming young man seated in the big Simplex car was John D. Jr., and many took the opportunity of getting a closer view of him.

DOCTOR'S DILEMMA IN CHINA

Ignorant and Superstitious Native Boosch Physician to Perform All Kinds of Impossibilities.

The rain was coming in sheets, and we had to stop at three this afternoon. Since then I have had a number of patients. A boy of eleven, who fell over a cliff and broke his arm, eleven months ago, is here with all his relatives, asking me to make the bones grow together again. There was no treatment for the arm when the accident happened, for the native doctors know nothing of surgery. They bound some vile-smelling concoction to the arm with bamboo splints and put another plaster of the same mixture on the back, "to draw the bone up." The arm is, of course, useless. I suggested an amputation, but the relatives will not consent to a mutilation of the body. The boy tried to prove to me, by opening and closing his hand, that the arm had life, and he would not believe me when I told him that the ends of the bone could not be brought together except by an operation. An old woman, bedridden for many years, is lying in the rain, on a stretcher made of sackcloth and bamboo poles, while her half-blind husband, who almost fell into the water when he came up the plank, pleads with me to give her some medicine to make her "feet walk, her tongue talk and her fingers able to hold her chop sticks." A leper, blind, footless and without hands, is sitting on the bank, begging for relief from the terrible disease that is slowly killing him. He promises to spend his life in making prostrations before me if I will condescend to heal him. A girl with tubercular sinuses in her bound foot tells me that she is to be married soon and that her future husband says he will beat her if she comes to him in poor health.

About four o'clock we went out for a bit of a walk. A poor woman on the bank held out her emaciated baby and asked me to make it see. Some ignorant medical practitioner had run needles into its eyes to drive a demon out of its stomach. The mother offered to bow before every shrine within a radius of three miles if I would only give her baby power to look up into her face. From "A Fortnight in a Cargo Boat," by William L. Hall, in Asia Magazine.

Social Climbers in Germany.

Old decorations and titles are still craved by social climbers in republican Germany. This is shown in a case in which an international impostor and his accomplice, who is a lunatic, were tried for fraud, says the Montreal Herald. The prisoner was charged with having traveled over Germany representing himself to be a papal count and chamberlain of the Vatican and selling papal baronies and orders for thousands of marks each. The titles are said to have been solemnly bestowed by the deposed emperor, who was formerly a veterinary surgeon, and whose mania is believing himself to be a ruling prince. A Munich art dealer paid 10,000 marks for a nonexistent Lateran order, while a Frankfurt merchant underwent solemn anointment as a Hohenzollern knight. But when the new knight did not pay the promised sum he was deprived of his title, which originated only in the fertile imagination of the false papal count.

The Tipping Problem.

"The tipping problem in Italy," said a traveler, "has been solved—incorrectly. Ten per cent is added to your hotel bill for tips; these tips the management distributes among the hotel staff; you give nothing yourself. "A solution, but an incorrect one, for by it the Italian waiter who has been rude to you gets as much of your money as the one who has been devoted. That is wrong, of course. "In a Nice hotel I encountered a solution that was better. There 10 per cent was added to my bill for tips, but I was given paper vouchers, a kind of hotel currency, for the amount, and they told me to distribute these vouchers as I pleased. I did so. The people who had served me well were generously rewarded. Those who had neglected me got nothing. "A solution, eh? But I asked myself, as I distributed my paper vouchers, how I was any better off by the new system than by the old one."

Learning to Play.

Albanian children are playing for the first time since the beginning of the war and are being taught American games. This has been made possible by funds contributed by American children through the Junior Red Cross. These children have never learned to play nor to laugh, but, every day now, outside the old partition building in Tirana, schoolboys may be seen playing prisoners' base, burn the city, duck on the rock, hop scotch and other games that have made the American children the brightest in the world. The girls indulge in all the games and frolics popular among their little sisters in America. During school hours they are taught also to sew, embroider and care for the sick.

Ease and Comfort in Java.

Living in Java is so inexpensive that a European resident in moderate circumstances may keep many servants; while the Mohammedan residents, whose religion allows them four wives, are usually able to support the full number. Of late, however, the H. C. L. penetrating in a degree even to Java, has forced them somewhat to reduce their families. In Java if a nobleman marries beneath him he does not bother to go to the ceremony, but very kindly sends his sword or his hat to represent him.

Society Notes

A party was given at the home of Miss Margaret O'Brien, 9 Reynolds street, on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Margaret Condon and Miss Anna Plunkett who are leaving town for the summer. The evening was spent in playing games and singing. One of the principal features of the evening was a three piece orchestra with Walter Lutz at the piano, Miss Helen Lutz playing the mandolin and Miss Mabel Waldron playing the Hawaiian guitar. A solo was rendered by Miss Esther Scully, who has a very sweet soprano voice. Toward the end of the evening, Tom O'Brien, (guitar), and Gerald Fitzgerald, (mandolin), played a duet which was appreciated by all. At 11:30 a delicious repast was served, after which the guests departed wishing the girls a pleasant summer. Those present were the Misses Margaret Condon, Anna Plunkett, Helen Lutz, Mabel Waldron, Florence Cavanaugh, Esther Scully, Margaret O'Brien, Alice O'Brien, Little Miss Virginia Dittus, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dittus, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien and the Messrs. Walter Lutz, Tom O'Brien, Gerald Fitzgerald, Arthur Britcliffe, Harold Freer and Charles Thurin.

Major-Ormerod.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ormerod of 44 East Strand announce the marriage of their daughter Carrie to T. F. Major of Chickasha, Oklahoma.

Smith-Hill.

At St. Luke's Episcopal Church rectory, Catskill, this morning at 10 o'clock, Miss Olive Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hill of that village, was married to Dr. Reuben Smith of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Hill Johnson in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride's sister, Mrs. William B. Donahue, was the matron of honor and William O. Edwards the best man. The bride wore a traveling suit with corsage bouquet of bridal roses, the maid of honor gown in white with corsage bouquet of pink roses. Immediately after the ceremony the newly married couple left for a honeymoon trip to Lake George, where they will occupy a cottage taken for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Kingston where the groom before and after the World War practiced at his profession as a veterinarian, with offices now at 642 Broadway, upstairs.

Wiltwyck Chapter at New Paltz.

On Wednesday afternoon, Wiltwyck Chapter, D. A. R., to the number of fifty or more members, was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Frank J. LeFevre in New Paltz by the New Paltz members of the chapter.

The guests were taken to the Memorial House and Hasbrouck House, which they inspected with much interest and profit, and to the old Dutch Reformed Church which also proved to be of great interest. On returning to Mrs. LeFevre's beautiful home on Huguenot avenue, the following program, admirably rendered, delighted the visiting D. A. R. members: "Faint Drills by four little girls. Dance, "Highland Fling," by three little girls.

Paper, "History of North Carolina," especially the Edenton Tea Party," by Miss Mary (Missionary) Deyo.

As Miss Deyo spent last winter in North Carolina, her paper proved to be full of charm and interest as well as much valuable historical information.

After the program, elaborate and delicious refreshments were served. The New Paltz members of Wiltwyck Chapter acted as a reception committee during the afternoon, which was hugely enjoyed by all.

Under His Hat.

The Woman and the man from out of town were theater-bound, and at 8 o'clock both discovered that neither knew the street on which the particular theater was located.

"Let's go to a newsstand and get an evening paper," suggested the man.

"Let's ask a policeman," suggested the Woman.

"Oh, that looks so out-of-townish," said the man, but as a big policeman here into view the man went up to him to get the information. "Lord love you," said the jovial policeman, "I can't keep all the theaters in my head any more than you can, but I do keep them in my hat." Then, winking amiably, he removed said hat or cap, to be correct, and extracted a tiny guide book which revealed, after a turning of numerous pages, the desired address.—Exchange.

America's Oldest Bell.

In the court house at Barnstable, Mass., is an old bell, cracked and silent, which may be, and probably is, the oldest bell in the United States. So thinks Alfred Crocker of Barnstable county.

The date 1675 is still plainly visible in a photograph recently printed. By this date, however, the old bell had seen nearly a quarter of a century of life in England before it came to America and began calling worshippers together in the church at Sandwich Town.

Gratitude bought the bell in England, for it came as a gift from Mrs. Peter Adolph, whose husband, Captain Adolph, was lost in the wreck of his vessel on the Massachusetts coast in 1697 despite the efforts of the people of Sandwich.—Boston Transcript.

BURNS PICKED TO MANAGE REDS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, June 15.—Pat Moran to step carefully out, George Burns to step modestly in as manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

That is the report left in the wake of the Reds as they fled our city beautiful after dropping four straight to the Giants. It began some days ago with what was alleged to be an inside tip from the Red business administration and since then has accumulated authenticity as a vest accumulates soap stains. It is now accepted as something in the nature of a certified fact.

If Moran is deposed, it will not come as a stunning surprise to many familiar with the Garry-Hermann system of shifting around the Cincinnati ball park. They demand a winner out there and change managers as often as they fail to get the desired effect, which might be said to be somewhat frequently.

Moran gave them a world's champion in 1919, but from the Cincinnati viewpoint, the past is dead, long live the future. It is said that they feel there is little future for the Reds with Moran at the head of the ball club.

Pat, with all his managerial virtues, is something of a one-year manager. He succeeded Charley Doolin as pilot of the Phillies in 1915 and steered a dorelet team to its first National League pennant. That was fine business.

But with stronger clubs to work with, he failed to repeat in 1916 and 1917 and the following year, his last in Philadelphia, he finished in the second division. It was then that they sang him Tosti's Good-Bye, with variations.

SCHEDULE OF RACES AT POUGHKEEPSIE REGATTA

The schedule of the racing events at the Poughkeepsie regatta has been announced as follows:

4:30 p. m., Junior varsity eights' race; two miles—No. 1, Cornell; No. 2, Columbia; No. 3, Penn; No. 4, Syracuse; No. 5, Penn, 150-pound crew. (Penn has two shells in this race because after training a crew for the 150-pound race, other entrants withdrew and that event was cancelled. The Penn crews may exchange positions if they wish.)

5:15 p. m., Freshman eights' race; two miles—No. 1, Cornell; No. 2, Syracuse; No. 3, Columbia; No. 4, Penn.

6:30 p. m., varsity eights' race; three miles—No. 1, Syracuse; No. 2, Columbia; No. 3, Washington; No. 4, Cornell; No. 5, Navy; No. 6, Penn.

ALL STARS PLAY AT WEST SHOKAN SUNDAY.

The Kingston All Stars will go to West Shokan, where they will meet the baseball team of that place Sunday. The Shokan boys have been doing some very good work this season and have acquired a very fast team. Likewise the All Stars have played some very close games. Tom Cullen, who will pitch for the All Stars, is in excellent form and has been all season. In the game played at Tannersville he is credited with 12 strikeouts and in the game in Milton two weeks ago he had 14 strikeouts.

The line-up for both teams will be as follows:

Kingston All Stars—Van Bramer, 1b; McAndrew, 2b; Dietz, ss; McMahon, c; Winters, 3b; Leonard, cf; Nichols, lf; Johnson, rf; Cahill, p; Cullen, p.

West Shokan—McCauley, lf; Ennis, cf; Cullane, ss; Cliff, 1b; Everts, rf; Conklin, 3b; Fay, c; Pickford, 2b; Whitney, p; Lynch, p; Tier, p.

SAUGERTIES TEAM AT EAST KINGSTON SUNDAY.

Manager Karl Threan will bring his fast Saugerties Independents baseball team to East Kingston Sunday, where they will clash with the team representing that place. This is the strongest team the East Kingston management has ever booked up, and it is expected that a large number of fans will witness the contest which will start at 3 o'clock daylight saving time. Watzka and Volker will do the battery work for East Kingston while Slinker and Bub Simmons will be the battery for Saugerties.

SHIP BARS BAR SHIP SUBSIDY

Opponents of Harding Merchant Marine Plan Allied With Prohibitionists to Defeat It Unless Sale of Liquor is Stopped—Anti-Saloon League Would Forbid All "Wet" Ships to Dock.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, June 15.—President Harding's long-cherished plan for the development of the American merchant marine was today threatened with defeat unless the government takes immediate steps to stop the sale of intoxicating liquor on United States shipping board vessels.

Members of the house who are opposed to the Harding-Lasker ship subsidy bill on general principles prepared to form a coalition with the ardent prohibitionists to put through an amendment barring ships which carry liquor from the benefits of the subsidy legislation.

Republican leaders plan to block this move by establishing a form of cloture in the house to prevent such an amendment from being considered, but it was evident today that Chairman Lasker's policy of selling liquor on government ships is to be attacked so vigorously in both branches of congress that the administration may be forced to alter this policy or to definitely establish its legality through a new ruling by the department of justice, pending a decision by the United States supreme court.

If the Democrats in the house find it impossible to attach the prohibition rider to the ship subsidy bill, they hope to stage a fight on that issue which will prevent enactment of the shipping legislation during the present session of congress.

House leaders admit that the exceedingly precarious situation in which the administration's ship subsidy bill has rested for several weeks, is even more complicated today because of the charges of Adolphus Busch that the United States is the "biggest bootlegger in the world." Even if the administration should bow to the will of the "drys" and agree to stop selling liquor on government vessels, shipping authorities declare the development of the merchant marine would be placed in jeopardy because American ships could not compete with British vessels which are permitted to dispense liquor.

The Anti-Saloon League declares this problem could be solved by prohibiting all ships—American or foreign—from carrying intoxicants within the three-mile limit. Wayne R. Wheeler, general counsel for the league, says such prohibition is provided through recent decision of the supreme court in interpreting the Volstead act.

"The enforcement of the law as recently upheld by the supreme court, will destroy most of the discrimination complained of between foreign vessels which could carry liquor and American vessels which could not," Wheeler said today. "When a foreign ship cannot come within our borders with any beverage liquor on board, American shipping will have a better chance."

Despite all the agitation that has been aroused as the result of the controversy between Adolphus Busch and the government over the sale of liquor, Republican Leader Mondak and other administration leaders were driving ahead with their plans to get the ship subsidy bill through the house as early as possible.

TAGGING THE BASES IN THE BIG LEAGUES

Five home runs, four of them in the trick right field stand at the Polo Grounds, enabled the Giants to give the Pirates the rough dry treatment 13 to 0, with the aid of some parsimonious pitching by Phil Douglas.

The agitated White Sox made it six straight by outslugging the Athletics in a slugging duel, 6 to 5.

Behind the dizzy pitching of Dazzy Vance, the Dodgers scored a 4 to 0 victory over the Cardinals.

George Sisler's one hundredth hit of the season was a home run with the bases filled in the sixth inning, and in consequence, the Browns overcame a five-run lead and beat the Senators, 7 to 6.

Oeschger, Lansing, Braxton and Watson failed in turn to halt the batting spree of the Chicago Cubs. Therefore the Braves finished on the wrong end of a 15 to 2 score.

The Yanks again declined to have anything to do with a pitcher to whom they had not been formally introduced, so that when Cobb trotted out Oleson, formerly of Cornell University, the haughty New Yorkers simply refused to do business with him. Meantime Oleson and the Tigers went on to win 6 to 2. It was the Yankees' third straight defeat.

Coveleskie got the better of Rip Collins in a pitchers' duel and the Indians blanked the Red Sox, 3 to 0.

STORM DAMAGE WORST IN CENTRAL COUNTIES

Severe local storms on Sunday caused great damage to buildings, orchards, shade trees and crops in general over the central counties of New York, according to the summary of weather and crop conditions for the week ending June 13, issued by the Ithaca office of the weather bureau. Damage from washed fields in southern Onondaga county alone is estimated at over $100,000.

Barring the storm damage, all crops continue in a very satisfactory condition, except possibly hay which in certain sections is below average.

FIVE ARRESTS IN TEXTILE STRIKE

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Lawrence, Mass., June 15.—Five arrests were made today in what was probably the most serious demonstration here since the textile mill strike began. City Marshal Timothy J. O'Brien and several members of the local police force were stoned by a tumultuous gathering of strikers outside the Pacific Print Works on Merrimack street. The strikers had been attempting to prevent operatives to enter the mill.

According to the police, no less than 600 strikers took part in today's demonstration. It constituted the first real outbreak here since the beginning of the strike. The strikers last night began plans for more actively prosecuting the strike.

PALENTOWN.

Palentown, June 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Traver and daughter Mildred called on Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Krom.

Charles Traver is in a critical condition. His friends would like to hear of his improvement.
